Dear partners, colleagues, friends, on behalf of New Social Initiative (NSI) we would like to update you on measures we took to ensure that our staff, colleagues, beneficiaries and everyone else is safe and secure. Here is our Covid-19 policy, that was put in force on Monday, March 16, 2020, and will stay in action until further notice.

WE WORK REMOTELY – Starting Monday, March 16, all our staff will work remotely. The office will remain closed until further notice.

WE COMMUNICATE AND MEET ONLINE – Working hours and channels of communication remain the same (email, phone, skype). We are open to utilizing other channels of remote communication as well.

ALL ACTIVITIES ARE ONLINE – As we continue with the important work, all activities, especially those requiring stakeholders’ engagement, will take place on NSI webpage, Facebook, Instagram and Twitter. For e-municipalities please visit: Zvecan, Mitrovica North, Zubin Potok and Leposavic/q and for the Kosovo Trustbuilding Platform visit the website, Facebook, Instagram and Twitter.

WE DO NOT TRAVEL OR PARTICIPATE AT IN-PERSON EVENTS – All travels and participation at in-person events are postponed until further notice. NSI staff is welcoming any online events and is happy to assist in arranging, hosting and participating.

For more information on how to protect yourself and others, please visit the World Health Organization (WHO) website, contact responsible institutions and your local healthcare provider.
